Intimations

The first part of the Report, mentioning the steps taken by the Directors with regard to the incorporation of the Company by charter, was so pointed out that the shareholders, which it was hoped would be obtained in a short time, would in many respects secure more advantage to the Company than mere registration under the Limited Liability Ordinance.

Mr. STROVER rose again and declared himself perfectly satisfied with all explanations given on behalf of the Company by the Chairman on behalf of the Deputy Chairman; he ventured now to obtain some information on the subject of the Preliminary Expenses incurred in the formation of the Company, and asked that, if he did not misremember Mr. St. Mary's meaning, that gentleman hereafter, "knew whether the Preliminary Expenses had reached any considerable sum."
